Question 1:

Catch an Arduino UNO board and find the actual components according to the picture.Point out the particular areas and numbering them.Then write down the names of the areas or pin or holes according to the numbers.

